
Sazdo Stanojković-Sašo
BEAUTIFUL WOMEN
WRONG MEN
(Stop Domestic Violence, Infidelity and Divorce)

Sazdo Stanojković-Sašo

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WRONG MEN

(Stop Domestic Violence, Infidelity and Divorce)

Skopje 2022

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WRONG MEN
(Stop Domestic Violence, Infidelity and Divorce)

Author:
Sazdo Stanojković-Sašo

Recension by:
Dr. Ferid Muhić
Dr. Jordan Plevneš
Dr. Venko Andonovski

Lector:
Martina Janevska

Graphic design of the cover:
Sazdo Stanojković-Sašo

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WRONG MEN
(Stop Domestic Violence, Infidelity and Divorce)

If we look at the world with the eyes of an angel (i.e. in a realistic and impartial way) from the angle of a high level of awareness, we can see a lot of absurds and illogicalities in the interpersonal relations which, probably under the influence of the demonic (destructive and detrimental) higher powers, lead the mankind into an accelerated process of self-destruction.In this demonic world of ever lesser number of rich people and ever bigger number of poor people, where evil, hate, selfishness, egoism, homicides and suicides reign, love and humanism are less and less present and are in a process of disappearance. Unfortunately, we live in a world of disordered system of human values where the money and the material goods are in the first place and are much more important than the subjective (psychophysical and moral) values in the process of choosing new friends or future spouses. For all these wrong choices based mainly on the material interest instead on love, the majority of the people in this world become more and more lonely or enter artificial marriages with inappropriate partners (most often it is a high-quality partner married to a low-quality one). It is an absurd, sad and unfair situation there to be so many beautiful women which are lonely and remained single since they have been too fastidious in choosing their future spouse or they have quit failed intimate friendships or marriages with wrong partners, or beautiful but stupid women which linger unhappy in failed marriages, when at the same time in the world there are a lot of quality men who are as lonely and with whom they can achieve quality conjugation which will bring both of them a lot of joy and happiness that will truly and permanently give sense to their lives.

It is a very sad fact that beautiful women are not with the top-quality men in their friendly or marital relations, and also the fact that top-quality men are not the most successful, richest men at the highest social (political or corporate) positions, and are not married to top-quality (beautiful and highly moral) women. Why is in this world everything turned upside-down and why, in general terms, top-quality persons are married to low-quality persons? Which is that reason, i.e. negative but powerful force, which stands in the way of establishinig the right conjunction between people of similar level of subjective values (quality) and compactness, who are kindred souls at the same spiritual and emotional frequency?

The wrong choice and the inapprorpiate conjuction of marital partners are the essential reasons for all the failed marriages and the increasing percentage of adultery, divorces and cases of family violence. It is a real science fiction the partners in marriage to feel unhappy or to feel the need for adultery or having a divorce when they make a perfect match of two kindred souls, with similar spiritual frequency and compact psychophysical and material values. The main and primary reason, either direct or indirect, for all the failed marriages, I find in the pretty (better say – beautiful) women, for the simple reason that they are always the ones who select their future spouse (husband), and not the opposite. Since both men of good quality and of bad quality are focused mainly to beautuful women, these women are in position to decide with which of the many wooers they are going to establish intimate friendship or get married. It is an indisputable fact that the majority of beautiful women, in such cases almost never choose the best-quality and the most appropriate partner, the only reason for that choice being their quite low intelligence. The number of opportunities (men-wooers) is directly proportional to a woman's beauty, the latter being in inverse proportion to her level of intelligence.

It is characteristic that most of the beauties, because of their low level of awareness, refuse good-quality wooers and choose low-quality ones, and the result of this is less and less love and more and more hate and misery in their relationships, i.e. increasing cases of adultery, family violence and divorced or artificially sustained marriages. The men of good quality who have been rejected by empty-headed beauties, because of their sexual needs or the wish to become parents are forced to lower their criterions on women's beauty and to become undeserved and inappropriate gift for averagely pretty, or even ugly, women, who use various sorts of tricks and magic rites. The result of all this is the prevailing percentage of artificially made marriages between a good-quality and a low-quality partner, where there are much more unhappiness and misery than pleasure and joy. If the intimate, and especially marital partners, are souls of a kind, at same spiritual frequency and with approximately similar level of quality (psychophysical and moral values), then the big number of cases of adultery, family violence and divorces would be reduced to minimum.

The capitalist social system is the generator of the ever lesser percentage of rich people and the bigger percentage of poor people who continuously become poorer. The pronounced material differences are the essential reason for the immense, quickly growing number of cases of homicides, suicides and other kinds of crime, prostitution, intimate friendships or marriages made of material interest, and for the increasingly pronounced alienation between the people who are more and more like bloodthirsty beasts and unemotional machines. Because of the poverty or the greed for money and the envy to the rich people, the people who have weaker ego very easily become faithful servants of the shrewd one (the devil) in the realization of his destructive intentions whose end goal is to inflict as much as possible evil and destruction of the happiness and the life to as many people as possible. The excessive ego not only makes the people unhappy poisoning them with the spiritual venoms of its manifestations (greed, envy, vindictiveness, anger, wrath, hate, malice and so on), but also imprisons their souls which way they become incapable of giving unconditional love and help, and this has direct influence in undermining interpersonal relations and losing the purpose of a human's existence on this planet. The psychology of the minds of the people captured by their excessive ego and being in the devil's claws, reminds of a distorted mirror for the depraved peoples' criterions on human values. In the process of evaluating men, the majority of women put in the first place their material values (how rich they are), instead of their subjective values (how pretty, smart, experienced, intelligent, moral they are); and what concerns men, the most important criterion to them is a woman's physical beauty, whereas their spiritual, moral and material values are much less important or unimportant at all.

We live in a devilish time where love is decreasingly present in the friendships and especially in the marriages which, because of the increasing number of divorces, lose the purpose of their existence, where sex with beautiful women costs men more and more, some of them even losing everything they have, including their lives, only for the sake of that damn lust for sex with beautiful women's bodies. When it lasts for a longer period of time, everything abnormal becomes normal to the majority of the people. The abnormal reality becomes omnipresent, where men of quality who are not rich enough can have sex with a beautiful woman only for a period measured by stopwatch i.e. only with a prostitute, whereas marriage with a pretty woman is only a fiction for them. All who are reading this book can be completely sure that in the future they are going to rarely see marriages between beautiful women and men of quality who are not rich enough. In other words, we live in a satanic time where love is less and less present in the interpersonal relations and where women's beauty is on sale as any other commodity on the market. Consequently, the men are in position of bidders at an auction of women' beauty, which means every man who has a lot of money and offers the highest price can buy a particular beautiful woman, no matter how old, intelligent, experienced, moral or pretty he is. For the average human mind, it becomes quite normal the otherwise abnormal thing, when one sees a beautiful woman of appropriate age, to suppose that if she is married, her husband must be a rich man. The irony of human stupidity in all that becomes even bigger when most of the people make mockery of the beautiful woman married of real love, not of material benefit, to a man who is not rich, considering her an idiot instead of treating with the utmost respect. In the time of our grandparents and grand-grandparents, marriages were often arranged by the mediation of matchmakers where it was usual the future spouses not to have seen each other before, or by making a marital contract between the bride's and the groom's parents, and even so the results were much better than in today's marriages, that is – in these marriages there were more children and harmony, and less divorces. All of us who are now adult persons, have grown up with the phrase used even in some pieces of poetry that love cannot be bought for money, but as the time passes, neither love nor marriages are going to exist, and this will bring an end to the existence of the entire humanity. If the marriage is the basic element (cell) of every society, and is successful, than the whole society is going to be successful and will function more quickly and more efficiently and develop in all the fields of human life. In order to be sound, productive and with high standards of living, the society must have as many as possible sound social cells (marriages, i.e. families). How beautuful and just the world will be for all the lonely hearts on this planet, if they have the chance to be permanently happy in a conjunction with an appropriate person in a long-lasting intimate or marital relationship.

This instructive book is dedicated to all mothers in the world, how to properly raise their daughters, and to all adult beauties (above average beautiful) girls and women, how not to make a mistake with the choice of their intimate partner or spouse, and how to do not miss the irreversible quality due to poor quality men, who are rich or with great fortune to be in a favorable time, space and mood to be with quality women who do not really deserve.

Through the pieces of wisdom and practical pieces of advice given in this book, the author wants to advise the men their primary goal in life to be earning as much money as possible, and not the evanescent lust for women with beautiful bodies; and also to advise women about the life truth how bad it will be for them if they trade with their beauty, and to make them aware of the fact that they should not make mistakes in choosing their intimate, and especially their future marital partner, so that they could be happy as much as they are worthed and desire to be happy.

This book is a real jewel, since it is abundant in educative timeless truths, pieces of wisdom and pieces of advice which raise peoples' awareness, especially that of beautiful women who have the leading role in the relationships between the opposite sexes and are the only ones who can save the human race from self-destruction through the right choice of their intimate or marital partner, which will consequently contribute to the decrease of the ever larger, rapidly growing cases of adultery, family violence and divorce.

In these bad times of disordered system of human values and increasing alienation, hate and evil, and less love and happiness, most of the people are hungry for information and techniques for achieving better health and success, and bigger joy and longer-lasting happiness in their lives. These people are trying to satisfy that hunger through reading various kinds of books and attending all kinds of trainings, courses and lectures. Exactly for this reason I have written this book – a scientific work conceived as a manual for the whole lifetime and intended to all the present and future generations, which is abundant in truths, principles and ideas on how to become healthier, more successful and happier in your mandate of existence. This work is so designed and composed, so that not to burden the reader with either the terminology used or its volume, and has been written in a colloquial, simple language understandable to every reader of any intelectual level. This is a universal handbook intended for a wider circle of readers interested in knowing the truth, and the right steps in establishing quality interpersonal relations. It is a scientific work and an original piece of literature of cultural and edicational character, and has a universal importance, cosmic dimensions and timeless truths useful to all the present and future generations in the world. This work is not only a piece of scientific literature, but it is also a handbook for every person of any age and, for the difference from the books, novels and poetry which are only transient pleasures, is abundant in life truths, practical pieces of advice and ideas intended to help the readers make their lives be longer, more successful, happier and with more meaning. You can easily see that the book is very unique and original, since the lots of facts, answers and truths contained in it are a result of the author's many-year analytical research and practical life experience, as well as of the intuitively acquired information from the universal intelligence.

This book is intended to a wider circle of readers interested in getting acquainted with the truth and the right steps in the process establishing quality interpersonal relations. In this book, the author gives as a gift to all the current and future readers a multitude of right pieces of advice, ideas and solutions for achieving better-quality interpersonal relations and bigger joy in everyday life. Through universal truths originating from the real life, the readers of this book will have the opportunity to become aware of various illusions and prejudices in the interpersonal relations, which most often, at unconscious level, make an obstacle to the people in achieving happier and longer life. This book would be of bigger practical value if it becomes available (through buying, giving as a present, lending) to a bigger as possible number of readers who will read, underdstand and implement in their lives the truths presented and, what is more important – will convey these truths to other people, in the first place to their children or grandchildren, preferably while they are still at a very young age. The book is a reminiscence in the quest for knowledge, happiness and everything else we have lost, but becomes increasingly important as the years pass by. The book is abundant in wise timeless truths, useful ideas and pieces of advice which are read and re-read the entire lifetime, and that's why it is recommendable to be present in as many homes as possible throughout the world, as a useful handbook for all the generations.

The purpose of this book is to satisfy the needs and the tastes even of the most fastidious readers. The author's idea is with this book to help the readers icrease their knowledge and help them in resolving their problems brought about by the unpredictable time and life. His goal is, through the universal truths from the real life, given in this book, to help the readers become able of recognizing all the illusions and prejudices in the interpersonal relations, which most often, at unconscious level, impede the people in achieving happier and loger life.

The largest portion of the truths given in this book are in fact information obtained from the universal intelligence, most often in the morning hours, in an intuitive way, in the form of different thoughts emerging one after another, later linked in chains and then assembled in a mosaic the author has been composing for years after that. Since nothing is by chance (senseless and without its own reason) in the Universe, neither the information donated by the Universe nor the book itself came accidentally into existence. The author decided to write down these truths obtained as a flood of pieces of mental information, so that they would not go away irretrievably, for in a short time after they had appeared they disappeared like soap bubbles. The interesting thing in it was that every morning when the author was writing down those pieces of information (truths) from the Universe, just after they had appeared, new ones appeared also on the same topic, and this process lasted for hours. Since these timeless truths had been obtained as a gift from the Universe, the author felt that his duty was to transfer them as a present to as many readers as possible in this beautiful world, through this book. After many years of patient work, the author managed to compose the mosaic of truths, ideas, pieces of wisdom and pieces of advice useful for the success and happiness of all the readers born or who will be born on this planet. The author's motive and inspiration for making his many-year piece of intellectual work originates from his complete belief and experience that this literary creation will be in fact the entrance of his spirit into the dimensions of eternity. The book is a mosaic made of a wide spectrum of truths, ideas and pieces of advice, which are in fact the speech of the author's spirit and soul. This original and universal literary work does not burden the reader, since it has been written in a simple, colloquial language understandable to every spiritual level of readers.

All of you, the readers, who will have the honour and the privilege to read this scientific, philosophic and psychologic book of practical use, will be able not only to increase your level of awareness of the cognized timeless truths, practical pieces of advice and pieces of wisdom, but also to become more successful, healthier and happier, with a longer mandate for your existence. This many-year scientific piece of work, as a practically useful and educative book, will surely spur a large interest and receive positive critics not only from the domestic, but also from the foreign public. Those who will completely and with full concentration understand the essence and the truthfulness of this book, are going to experience an exciting journey to the higher dimensions of awareness.

The biggest wish of the author of this book full of timeless, universal and educative truths, is the book to be printed in as many as possible world languages, so that as many as possible readers throughout the world will be able to acquire it only at a symbolic price (which will be just enough for covering the printing costs) and have it in their homes as a permanent handbook for themselves and the next generations in the family. For that goal, the author's intention is the money earned from the copies sold to be invested in a new cycle of printing, so that after several cycles there would be enough finance for translating the book into English language and then in other world languages, all that with the end goal as many people in the world as possible to have the opportunity to read it. This way we – the author, who has invested huge efforts in writing the book, and you – the readers who have bought the book, will together contribute for spreading the positive energy, love, happiness and, in the first place – scientific truths, among as many as possible people throughout the world.

The author's biggest reward for the invested many-year labour is as bigger as possible number of readers to get the chance to read this book and, above all – to help them make their lives more successful, prettier and happier. The author's most important benefit from this original book is not the glory or the material profit, but the fact that the book is the ticket which is going to take him, i.e. his spirit and soul, into eternity. There is no bigger satisfaction and happiness for the soul than the notion that you create something very useful to all the next generations, and the creation which is going to take you to the eternity would finally come out better than you have imagined initially. It is same as the person has never existed, if he/she doesn't have own creations and deeds. The rare genius minds, because of their highly developed intuition i.e. direct link with the universal intelligence (the total knowledge and all the existing information in the Universe) have the credit for all the scientific discoveries, inventions and technological achievements which make peoples' lives simpler and more joyful. Only the rare wise minds with high level of spiritual awareness have the privilege, through the intuitive information acquired and the constructive analyses done from the aspect of the general perception of the peoples' majority, to get close to the absolute truths which have always been and will always be inaccessible to the average human mind. The wise geniuses are not selfish or with excessive ego, and that's why they gladly give the cognized timeless truths as a present to the other people and the next generations, through their spoken or written word and above all through their creations useful to the mankind, thus accomplishing their exceptional role and purpose of existence on this planet. The cunning devil never sleeps and in all possible ways suggestively destructively influences the minds of people, all with the ultimate goal of directly influencing or destroying as many human lives on the planet as possible through his obedient servants (evil people and Satanists). So be careful what books you read, what music you listen to and most importantly what people you hang out with or are in an intimate relationship with.

It would be a very sad thing if the author's highly educative books are read and understood only by a small number of very intelligent readers, for in such case his main goal – through timelless and educative truths to enlighten the majority of the people in the world and thus save it of the self-destruction desired by the devil.

The book "PRETTY WOMEN WRONG MEN" is a wonderful gift which can be given for or without some special occasion, and it is desirable to be present in every home as an useful handbook for all the generations.

CONTENT

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WRONG MEN
(Stop Domestic Violence, Infidelity and Divorce)

0.1. Female beauty is the most powerful force on the planet.
1.1. Instructive truths about the power of female beauty.
1.2. Wise thoughts about female beauty.
1.3. Instructive truths about female beauty.
1.4. Female beauty is the greatest illusion of the male mind.
1.5. Female beauty has a fleeting naming power
1.6. Maintaining female beauty is an expensive luxury.
1.7. How to be a permanent female beauty.
1.8. Cosmic balance of beauty with a woman's intelligence.
1.9. Female beauty is inversely proportional to intelligence.
1.10. How the cunning (devil) works through the power of female beauty.
1.11. Female beauty should not be sold but given as a gift to the right men.
1.12. The abuse of female beauty leads to punishment - the suffering of women.
1.13. The soul is full of what the eyes see.

0.2. Being a beautiful woman is a great pleasure, but also a responsibility.
2.1. Instructive truths about beautiful women.
2.2. Instructive truths for materialistic beauties.
2.3. Instructive truths for emotional beauties.
2.4. Instructive truths for elegant women.
2.5. Instructive truths for stupid beauties.
2.6. The majority of ugly women are destructive and evil.
2.7. Feminism as a stupid illusion of frustrated (ugly) women.

0.3. Beautiful women wrong choices.
3.1. The essential responsibility for all failed marriages lies with beautiful women.
3.2. The majority of beauties make the wrong choices when choosing spouse.
3.3. Low-intelligence beauties make the wrong choices for men.
3.4. Why even some highly intelligent beauties make wrong choices for men.
3.5. The majority of beauties abuse or trade in their beauty.
3.6. For the most beauties, material pleasures are more important than love.

0.4. Why beautiful women fail in choosing their intimate (spouse) partner.
4.1. The prejudices of beauties are the first psychological filter when choosing men.
4.1.1. The influence of positive female prejudices in the choice of men.
- In no case an intimate relationship with a married man is a positive prejudice.
- In no case an intimate relationship with a man of another religion is a positive prejudice.
- In no case an intimate relationship with an inferior man is a positive prejudice
- In no case an intimate relationship with a partner of their loved ones is a positive prejudice.
- In no case in an intimate relationship (marriage) with a jealous man, is a positive prejudice.
- Principled fidelity, whatever the spouse is a positive prejudice.
- Divorce and not artificial marriage, is a positive prejudice.

4.1.2. The influence of negative female prejudices in the choice of men.
- The first impression as a negative prejudice.
- Rejection of criticism as a negative prejudice.
- The place, time and manner of dating as a negative prejudice.
- Men's age as a negative prejudice.
- The material value of men as a negative prejudice.

- The popularity and fame of men as a negative prejudice.
- The position, the working status of men is a negative prejudice.
- The influence of other people's opinion on a certain man is a negative prejudice.
- Men's zodiac signs as a negative prejudice.
- Better with an inappropriate man than alone, is a negative prejudice.
- The need for domination over the man as a negative prejudice.
- Rejection of divorce, as a negative prejudice..

4.2. The value criterion of beauties is the second psychological filter when choosing men
4.2.1. The illusory value criterion of beauties when choosing their intimate (spouse) partner.
4.2.2. The most common 25 female illusions when choosing an intimate (spouse) partner.
4.2.3. The most common demagogic phrases (illusions) that most women blindly believe.
4.2.4. How to save women from the illusory value criterion when choosing men..
4.2.5. The most important value traits of men that should be appreciated by all women.
- High IQ as a high value in some men.
- Rich life experience as a high value for some men.
- Honesty as a high value in some men.
- Moral principles as a high value in some men.

4.3. Essential reasons for the wrong choices of women.
4.3.1. Low IQ as a reason for wrong choices.
4.3.2. Insufficient love experience as a reason for wrong choices.
4.3.3. Improper parenting as a reason for women to make wrong choices.
4.3.4. Excessive ego as a reason for wrong choices.
4.3.5. Wrong way of choosing men by women.
4.3.6. Wrong value priority when choosing men by women.

4.4. Most beauties in the world are victims of their poor (bad) taste.
4.5. Most beauties are undeserved gifts for poor men.
4.6. Instructive truths about beauties who make the wrong choices when choosing a man.

05. Consequences of the wrong choice of beauties.

06. Practical tips for beautiful women.
- Timeless truths that are desirable for all beautiful women in this world to understand.
- There are no negative or positive people.
- Unconditional love is the super glue in male-female relationships.

07. Formula for achieving unconditional love between two friends, intimate partner or spouses.
7.1. Let the two be soul mates.
7.2. Both to be on a similar spiritual frequency.
7.2.1. Both should have a similar level of spiritual awareness
7.2.2. Both to have similar views of the world and life
7.2.3. Both to have similar tastes
7.3. Both to be on a similar level of moral values (from a religious point of view)
7.4. Both to be on a similar level of common subjective compact values.
7.5. Both to have a similar level of material values.
7.6. The man to dominate with experience and intelligence in relation to the woman.
7.7. She and he to be on a similar sexual energy level (match in libido).

08. Only above average beautiful women can save the world.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN WRONG MEN

Sazdo Stanojkovic - Sasho

I was born in Skopje in 1965 in a happy, memorable and unique time, in a family filled with great love from my wonderful parents. I graduated from high school and the Faculty of Electrical Engineering in Skopje, and then I worked as an electrical engineer in managerial positions in the Electricity Company of Macedonia. In this scientific paper, readers have the opportunity to learn timeless truths, wise advice and golden principles as well as suggestions and solutions on how to overcome the absurd and the quality to replace the poor and inappropriate immediate or marital partners where the result is an increasing percentage of marital infidelities, family violence and divorce in which, apart from the partners, neither their loved ones nor their family suffer, especially their children and parents. As a result of many years of analysis and research and communication with a large number of people of different profiles, I realized the real reasons why we generally make mistakes when choosing friends, as well as our intimate partners or spouses, which no mentally normal person wants. It is desirable this book to be present in every home as a lasting guide, especially for the women and for mothers how to raise their beloved daughters as if they do not miss quality boys because of poor quality boys.

